MAD LIBS®

INSTRUCTIONS

MAD LIBS® is a game for people who don't like games! It can be played by one, two, three, four, or forty.

• RIDICULOUSLY SIMPLE DIRECTIONS

In this tablet you will find stories containing blank spaces where words are left out. One player, the READER, selects one of these stories. The READER does not tell anyone what the story is about. Instead, he/she asks the other players, the WRITERS, to give him/her words. These words are used to fill in the blank spaces in the story.

• TO PLAY

The READER asks each WRITER in turn to call out words—an adjective or a noun or whatever the space calls for—and uses them to fill in the blank spaces in the story. The result is a MAD LIBS® game.

When the READER then reads the completed MAD LIBS® game to the other players, they will discover that they have written a story that is fantastic, screamingly funny, shocking, silly, crazy, or just plain dumb—depending upon which words each WRITER called out.

• EXAMPLE (Before and After)

"_____ (EXCLAMATION)!" he said _____ (ADVERB)

as he jumped into his convertible _____ (NOUN) and drove off with his _____ (ADJECTIVE) wife.

"Ouch (EXCLAMATION)!" he said stupidly (ADVERB)

as he jumped into his convertible cat (NOUN) and drove off with his brave (ADJECTIVE) wife.

QUICK REVIEW

In case you have forgotten what adjectives, adverbs, nouns, and verbs are, here is a quick review:

An ADJECTIVE describes something or somebody. Lumpy, soft, ugly, messy, and short are adjectives.

An ADVERB tells how something is done. It modifies a verb and usually ends in "ly." Modestly, stupidly, greedily, and carefully are adverbs.

A NOUN is the name of a person, place, or thing. Sidewalk, umbrella, bridle, bathtub, and nose are nouns.

A VERB is an action word. Run, pitch, jump, and swim are verbs. Put the verbs in past tense if the directions say PAST TENSE. Ran, pitched, jumped, and swam are verbs in the past tense.

When we ask for A PLACE, we mean any sort of place: a country or city (Spain, Cleveland) or a room (bathroom, kitchen).

An EXCLAMATION or SILLY WORD is any sort of funny sound, gasp, grunt, or outcry, like Wow!, Ouch!, Whomp!, Ick!, and Gadzooks!

When we ask for specific words, like a NUMBER, a COLOR, an ANIMAL, or a PART OF THE BODY, we mean a word that is one of those things, like seven, blue, horse, or head.

When we ask for a PLURAL, it means more than one. For example, cat pluralized is cats.

MAD LIBS
MY INGENIOUS GADGETS, BY MANNY

As you know, I, Manny Spamboni, have invented countless _____(PART OF THE BODY)-bending creations, but here are a few of my _____(ADJECTIVE) favorites:

Sneaky Sneakers: Hector thinks he's so good at basket-_____(NOUN), I couldn't help but challenge him to a game. Then I switched his stinky _____(PLURAL NOUN) with a pair that I cleverly, _____(ADVERB) engineered to make him trip over his _____(PART OF THE BODY (PLURAL)).

Freezinator 2.0: This invention works like a/an _____(NOUN) when you want to literally stop a/an _____(NOUN) in its tracks. I created a pair of _____(PLURAL NOUN) that, when you wear them, freezes your _____(PART OF THE BODY (PLURAL)) to the ground! _____(PERSON IN ROOM) felt pretty _____(ADJECTIVE) when he/she accidentally wore them to school.

The Letter-Getter: Have you ever owned the letter _____(LETTER OF THE ALPHABET)? I have. Powered by a rare, _____(ADJECTIVE) meteorite, this device can steal any letter from any _____(NOUN) in the universe! Take that, Electric Company!
